MAYOR'S OFFICE OF SUSTAINABILITY & RESILIENCE

The Mayor's Office of Sustainability & Resilience leads science-based analysis informed by the community to establish, develop, implement, and promote policies, programs, and initiatives related to environmental sustainability, climate resilience, circular economy and food security rooted in environmental justice.

MAYOR'S OFFICE OF
Sustainability and Resilience

Climate resilience is about successfully coping with and managing the impacts of climate change while preventing those impacts from growing worse —and doing so in ways that make the world more equitable and just, not less.
